

Fire protection equipment

To guarantee safety at all times while on Zurich Airport's premises, we carry out regular inspections and expert maintenance to ensure that the fire protection equipment is always in good working order.

Benefits

- State of the art fire protection equipment at Zurich Airport is unique in Switzerland. Our qualified specialists have years of experience; always being up to date with the latest technologies in regards to fire prevention.
- Highly trained in minimalising response time in case of emergencies: our specialist staff are available on stand-by 24 hours a day, 365 days a year and carry all the necessary access authorisations.
- Specialists for all equipment: well-trained teams maintain and ensure the technical fire protection equipment is in good working order. Moreover, we are intimately familiar with the complex airport environment.
- Professional maintenance and servicing of the equipment
- Thorough and complete documentation of all work and statutory inspections

QUALITY STANDARDS

- Our work is of the highest quality standards ensuring your satisfaction
- Thanks to our internal training programmes, work safety on complex is guaranteed
- Our priority is the practical suitability of equipment

QUALITY CONTROL

- Compliance with legal standards and guidelines. The regulations and official inspections involved in fire protection are very rigorous and thorough, to guarantee a high safety standard.

Services

- Ensuring compliance with technical fire protection requirements (when planning and executing alterations, conversions and operational changes)
- Functional and integral tests, maintenance and servicing of technical fire protection facilities
- Preparation of inspection plans for periodic operational checks
- Periodic checks of fire doors and gates in accordance with fire safety requirements

Specialist areas

- Fire extinguishing equipment and systems
- Fire alarm and gas detection systems
- Smoke and heat extraction systems
- Smoke protection pressure systems
- Safety lighting
- Firefighter lifts
- Lightning protection systems
- Explosion protection features
- Fire doors and gates